

FLORAVILLE – Situated 38 miles south-east of Burketown, the P.O. opened 1883, closed 1916.

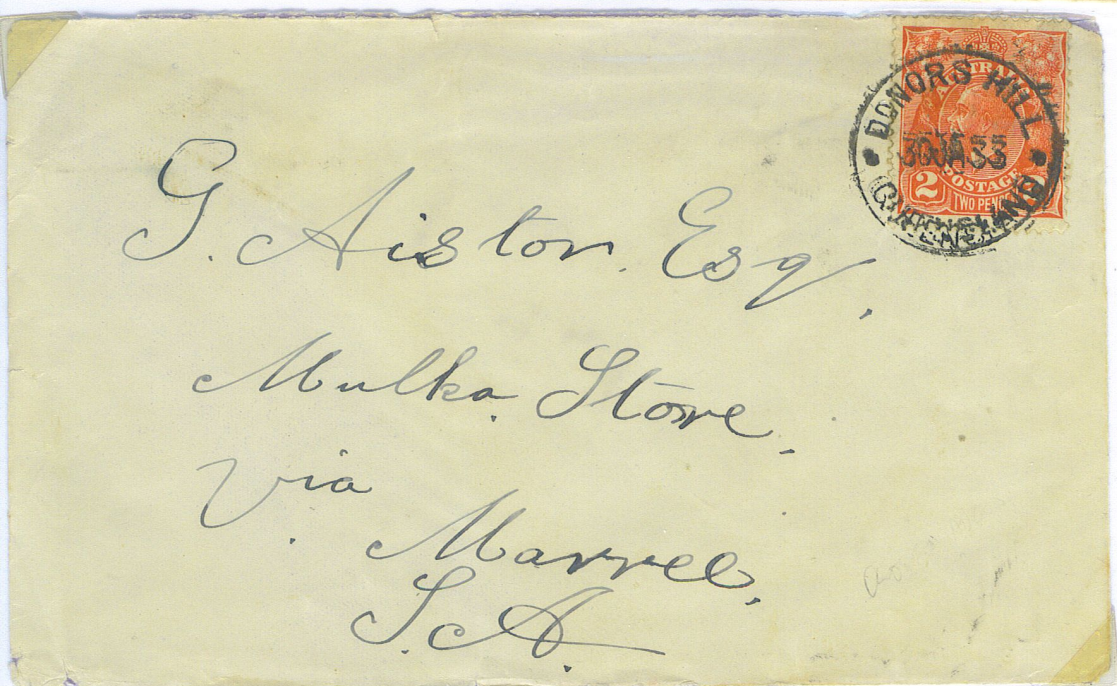

KARUMBA – On the Gulf of Carpentaria. The Post Office has closed and opened several times since initially opening in 1889.

DOBBYN – A copper mining town 65 miles north west of Cloncurry. The Post Office opened in 1917, closed 1923, then reopened in 1927 and finally closed in 1961.

NORMANTON – Originally named Norman River, the Post Office opened in 1868 and changed its name to Normanton in 1872. Nowadays a busy little place as home to the Gulflander tourist train.

DONORS HILL – A station to the south-west of Normanton, the Post Office opening in 1891 and becoming official two years later. It was made unofficial in 1931, and thus was so when this item was posted, interestingly to a small settlement north-east of Marree, just of the Birdsville Track in South Australia.
